ANNUAL MEETING Book Collection

Leading to Reading will be collecting books at our Annual Meeting.

Donated books should be for pre-school children ages 0-5. They must be new and can be board books (which little ones may chew) or brightly colored books that young children can enjoy with a parent. Those with multi-ethnic characters, animals, or machinery will be enjoyed by all.

Our members have always been so generous. We thank you for your continued support of our community service project!

AAUW Movie Group

It is with regret that the Movie Group will no longer be meeting. The group has not met for some time because of Covid. Now it seems, local theaters are no longer offering movies that are of interest to our participants. If this situation changes, we will consider returning to the gatherings we enjoyed in the past.

--Linnea Masson, AAUW Movie Group Coordinator

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Monique Jones president.aauw.poughkeepsie@gmail.com

As I contemplated my final letter for the newsletter, I knew that I could not sign-off without saying what an honor it has been to serve as the 49th president of the Poughkeepsie Branch AAUW. While I fell short of fulfilling my personal goal of engaging with many of you through the various interest group activities and community service initiatives that we offer, I was still able to see firsthand the commitment, the ingenuity, and the incredible set of skills that drive our members and the work you do. Needless to say, it has been a challenging two years but they have also been rewarding ones.

So, as we close out this program year, I hope to see many of you at our Annual Meeting on June 9th at the Poughkeepsie Grand. Our theme of Coming Together is a simple one but encapsulates what the evening will be about: coming together to enjoy one another's company after many months of being physically apart. Dr. Lucia Chercui, Professor of English at Dutchess Community College in Poughkeepsie, will speak to this idea and also enlighten us about the role and her responsibilities as Dutchess County Poet Laureate, which she was again named for 2022. Please join us for the installation of the new officers for 2022-2023, to recognize and honor individuals for their membership milestones and accomplishments, and to appreciate the words of Dr. Chercui.

Finally, June 2022 marks the 50th anniversary of the passage of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. This federal law prohibits sex discrimination in education, protecting staff and students in any educational institution or program that receives federal funds. You can read more about where AAUW stands on Title IX by following this link:

<https://www.aauw.org/resources/policy/position-title-ix/>

I wish everyone a safe and fun-filled summer and look forward to seeing you in the fall.

Warm regards,
Monique

PUBLIC POLICY

Celia Serotsky board.aauw.poughkeepsie@gmail.com

This is my final column as Public Policy Chair as I will be taking on the role of President of Poughkeepsie Branch AAUW on July 1st. I have enjoyed writing these columns, attempting to organize candidate forums, and sending out eblasts to inform our membership of voting procedures (especially during Covid) and upcoming elections that relate to our mission and goals. Now, I am asking someone to step forward and take on this job for the next two-year term. I have made numerous phone calls, but so far, I do not have someone to assume this role after my term is up. Please consider volunteering as Public Policy Chair for 2022-2024. It really is a fun job, and you will have lots of support from the Board if you have questions, and I can initially assist you in where I found information to write about.

As you read this, school board elections will have taken place. The results will be in. I'm not sure what is happening with the Republican and Democratic primaries at this time, although I did read that they will be moved back to August. This is due to the recent court decision that rejected the changes to the district mapping done by the New York State Assembly and Senate, where both have Democratic majorities.

Also, in the news has been the announcement that Representative Antonio Delgado will be running as Lieutenant Governor on the ticket with Governor Kathy Hochul. This morning's Poughkeepsie Journal (May 11, 2022) stated that Delgado has ended his campaign to run for a third term. Ulster County Executive Pat Ryan (Dem) has filed preliminary papers stating an intention to run for the 19th Congressional District. Dutchess County Executive Mark Molinaro is the Republican challenger for this position.

Thank you for your kind support throughout my past two years. As I said, I have enjoyed writing these columns and have especially enjoyed being a part of the monthly Board meetings. I was quite hesitant to agree to serve as Public Policy Chair when our current President Monique Jones called me a couple of years ago. I asked many questions and was clear that I did not want to agree to something without knowing how much time it would take out of my already busy schedule. It has not had a negative affect on that schedule, I'm happy to say. Please contact me at the above email address or use the Membership Booklet to call me – my cellphone is my preferred phone. And, thank you for the support that so many have shown me these past two years.

Suffrage in the Cemetery – Rally of 1908

Margaret Nijhuis

On Saturday, May 7, 2022, Miriam Cohen was one of the organizers of an event to dedicate a marker honoring the local rally by Vassar students and local residents in 1908 that ultimately led to the passage of the 19th amendment in 1920. Miriam is a Professor Emerita of History at Vassar College. She is a member of Poughkeepsie AAUW and presented on January 13, 2022 – "Julia Lathrop: Groundbreaking social servant, government activist, and social scientist," a book she authored at our membership meeting.

Miriam Cohen stands next to the marker, which reads:

Votes for Women

Inez Milholland, disobeying Vassar College President, led a 1908 suffrage meeting with talks by Harriot Stanton Blatch and Rose Schneiderman

The program for the dedication included the great nephew of Inez Milholland - Vassar class 1909 – who organized the rally in the cemetery, the great, great-granddaughter of Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and great-granddaughter of Harriet Stanton Blatch – who spoke at the rally, and the great niece of Rose Schneiderman – who also spoke at the rally. Miriam and Bill Jeffway, another AAUW program speaker, gave the attendees the background of what led to the rally and local support of the right of women to vote.

It was a great event. Those of you who could not attend please see the marker on the Vassar Campus. It is located on the left as you face Kenyon Hall just next to the cemetery fence. This is one of 2000 sites across the country but one of only 200 that will have a marker on the National Votes for Women Trail.

IN MEMORIAM: Margaret (Peggy) Lombardi

It is with sadness that we note the passing of Poughkeepsie Branch member Peggy Lombardi on Wednesday, April 27th, after a long illness.

Peggy graduated from the University of Connecticut with a BA in Chemistry in 1957. In 1959, she received a National Science Foundation scholarship to study chemistry at Yale University. She received a second National Science Foundation scholarship in 1962 to study a full year at Cornell University, where she earned her master's degree.

Peggy joined AAUW in 1957 and became a member of the Poughkeepsie branch in 1997 after retiring from teaching chemistry. Peggy loved to travel and was an active participant in many "Aventures en Soleil" day trips with AAUW. She was also a member of Manderley Literary Society book group and Leading to Reading community initiative. She will be missed.

Peggy's daughter, Judy Lombardi, is a member of Poughkeepsie AAUW. Her contact information is in our branch directory.

Read more about Peggy's life in her obituary here: <https://www.poughkeepsiejournal.com/obituaries/pjo070654>

EXTENDING GIRLS' HORIZONS

Peggy Kelland

On April 22, we held the Girl Scout badge workshop "New Cuisines" at Zion Episcopal Church in Wappingers Falls. 25 girls in grades 6-8 from Poughkeepsie, Wappingers, and Fishkill prepared regional, historical, international, and original recipes from scratch under the guidance of AAUW members Gwen Higgins, Celia Serotsky, Lynda Bryne, Ann Pinna, and Peggy Kelland, plus 5 Girl Scout leaders. We then all enjoyed the buffet of 20 different dishes.

The committee is currently working to offer the programs that were cancelled by the shutdown two years ago.

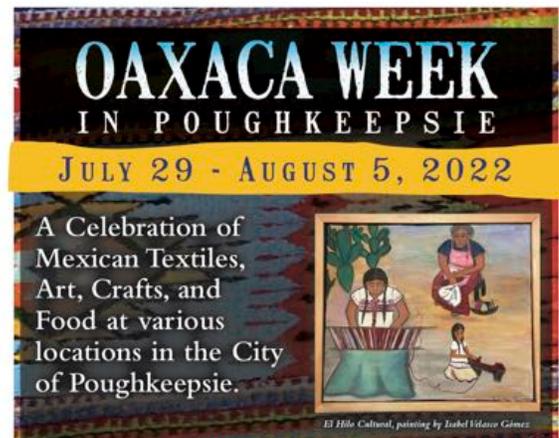

Oaxaca Week in Poughkeepsie

Marti Madory

Branch members may participate in another interesting cultural exchange in Poughkeepsie this summer:

Displays of historic textiles and works of contemporary art from Oaxaca, Mexico -- enriched by workshops and informative talks -- will be presented throughout the City. Locations for the activities will include The Poughkeepsie Trolley Barn, the offices of MASS Design, Fallkill Creative Works, and Adriance Library. The public is invited to the joint opening of these exhibitions at the Trolley Barn on Friday, July 29 from 4 pm to 6 pm, where food will be served that highlights the diverse culinary traditions of the Oaxacan region. The curator, Nora Isela Ortiz Muro, will present a talk at the Trolley Barn on Wednesday, August 3 at 5 pm.

Oaxaca Week will culminate in Poughkeepsie's annual Guelaguetza, a traditional festival that offers music, dancing, art works, and food representative of south-central Mexico. (The word "guelaguetza" is derived from a Zapotec expression that means "sharing"). That outdoor event will take place in Waryas Park on the shores of the Hudson River.

The exhibits, which have been shown in other countries as well as the US, have been curated and will be accompanied by Nora Isela Ortiz, president of Oaxaca y Sus Culturas Hermanas del Mundo. In 2019, Ms. Ortiz helped facilitate a visit to Oaxacan schools by three Dutchess County teachers, who later shared their experiences at a branch program meeting. (A majority of Mexican immigrants living in Dutchess County have roots in Oaxaca.)

AAUW members—particularly those who speak Spanish—who would like to help host Ms. Ortiz during her stay are welcome to volunteer by getting in touch with Marti Madory. Marti is serving on the planning committee, which is chaired by Ellie Charwat.

Rewarding Volunteer Opportunity

Barbara Van Itallie

The AAUW initiative, Math Buddies, is seeking more volunteers for the 2022-2023 school year.

Math Buddies work in grades one through five in the City of Poughkeepsie and Arlington Schools helping struggling students with their math work. Volunteers work one-on-one with the students or with groups in the classroom, as specifically directed by the classroom teacher. Volunteers typically offer about one hour per week although there is often flexibility in scheduling, including time off for winter travel. Potential volunteers need not be elementary or math teachers and should not be concerned about any new approaches to math since the material is very basic.

This is done in-person, not remotely, only when considered safe by all parties.

I personally find this an extremely rewarding experience. Any extra help in both math and confidence-building is particularly needed. Please contact me for more information.

NEWS FROM AAUW-NYS

Thanks to Title IX:

- Women now make up over 56% of America's college students.
- Women hold nearly half (48%) of tenure track positions.
- Since Title IX's passage, the number of female athletes climbed more than 10 times: female athletes now make up 42% of all high school athletes.
- In 1972, only 700 girls played soccer on high school teams. In 2018, there were 390,000.
